The Bylaws of the American Council of Engineering Companies define a Life Fellow as follows:

- Life Fellow Application Fee of $250, which will be used to help fund the ACEC Research Institute Scholarship Fund.
- Life Fellow candidates shall have been a Fellow for not less than five years and shall be fully retired from the active private practice of consulting engineering and not engaged in activities which are in competition with consulting engineering.
- All annual Fellow dues must be paid in full.
- Application by the Fellow shall be made to the Fellows Committee and must be approved by a simple majority vote of that Committee with no more than one (1) negative vote if the applicant is to become a Life Fellow.
- Life Fellows may remain in this category, paying no dues, so long as they meet the other criteria of a Life Fellow.

I hereby certify to the Fellows Committee that my status fully complies with the eligibility requirements of a Life Fellow as stated in the ACEC Bylaws and I hereby apply for America Council of Engineering Companies Life Fellow membership. Should my status change which affects my eligibility to be a Life Fellow, I will so advise the Committee.
