

BLUEPRINT CREATOR | PLAN DESIGNER

CADD Technician

- Applies engineering principles and knowledge of machines and materials to complete various project drawings.
- Uses computer-aided design (CAD) software and equipment.
- Prepares preliminary and final drawings, maps, charts and designs, ensuring accurate dimensions, materials, and proper alignment of parts within the design.
- Makes necessary revisions and finalizes drawings by inking lines and lettering.
- Creates charts and converts rough sketches into detailed finished designs.

Required Education

- Associate Degree, or
- High School Diploma or GED with 2+ years prior experience or skills training/certifications.
- No additional licensure required for career advancement.

Average Wages

- Average annual salary ranges $60,087 to $76,361.
- This position is paid hourly with overtime and is eligible for yearly raises and bonuses at most firms.

Choose this career if you enjoy...

- Reading blueprints and plan sets.
- Math and technology.
- Structured environment with clear objectives.
- Office and remote work balance.
- Creative design and attention to detail.
- Collaboration with multi-disciplinary teams.