

Construction Inspection Technician

- Records and measures civil construction progress.
- Observes and monitors construction project to ensure it follows contract requirements, shop drawings, and industry standards.
- Conducts quality assurance tests on materials like concrete, asphalt, and soils.
- Calculates areas and volumes of installed materials for contractor payments.
- Communicates effectively while documenting site activities and reporting any issues to project engineers or contractor.

Required Education

- High School Diploma or GED for hire.
- No previous experience in the industry required.
- Additional training and certifications may be required for advancement.

Average Wages

- Average annual salary ranges $56,440 to $69,474.
- This position is paid hourly with overtime and is eligible for yearly raises and bonuses at most firms.

Choose this career if you enjoy...

- Finding solutions to complicated problems.
- Math and calculations.
- Observing construction projects being built.
- Learning hands-on.
- Working independently and as a team.
- Being outdoors.