

Professional Surveyor

- Measures land and determines property boundaries using advanced tools like GPS, Total Stations, and drones.
- Creates accurate maps and reports to support construction, land development, and urban planning.
- Ensures compliance with legal regulations using proper documentation.
- Provides vital data to support safe, efficient, and legally sound projects.
- Oversees survey crews and office technicians to ensure quality and accuracy in surveying tasks.

Required Education

- Bachelor's Degree in Surveying.
- Associate degree plus additional college courses.
- Passage of two PS licensure exams.
- Licensure as a Professional Surveyor.

Average Wages

- Average annual salary ranges $97,000 to $135,000.
- This position is eligible for yearly raises and bonuses at most firms and often a company vehicle.

Choose this career if you enjoy...

- Problem solving, math and technology.
- Reading blueprints and plan sets.
- Developing maps and being outdoors.
- Application of property law principles.
- Managing people, projects, and clients.
- External engagement and leadership.